— study guide —

For sermon on Sunday, November 18, 2018

group discussion questions

1. What is the main point from Scripture as it was taught on Sunday
2. Are there any Study Questions from this week that you want to discuss?
3. What difference should this Scripture make in our lives today?
4. How Does God want your personal beliefs and actions to change based on this Scripture?
5. How can you plan to accomplish this change with God's grace this week? What is the first step toward bringing about this change?

I will give thanks to the LORD with my whole heart; I will recount all of Your wonderful deeds.

Psalm 9:1

this month's memory verse

personal study questions

1. What are you tempted to grumble about? Why?
2. Why is God angered by our grumbling? How does our grumbling rob God of His glory?
3. What does grumbling reveal about our heart?
4. What healthy alternatives do we have to grumbling when circumstances are really hard?
5. How can we apply these healthy alternatives when we are tempted to grumble?
6. Often we are unaware that we are grumbling. How might we become more conscious of our grumbling?
7. How does our grumbling negatively impact people in God's church? How might this negative impact hinder our whole church from bearing fruit for God?
8. Why did God tell Moses to gather 70 men who would bear the burden of the people's grumbling? How might the pressure of the people's grumbling crush a godly leader like Moses?
9. What practical applications do you think church leaders should make from God's instruction to Moses?
10. What is the best way to respond when a brother or sister in Christ is grumbling to others in the church?
11. Why do we tend to remember the past as better than it was when we encounter present circumstances that are difficult? How does the devil use our false memories to keep us from worshipping God?
12. Why was God so angry with Miriam and Aaron in Numbers 12? What practical lessons do we learn from this episode?
